Olamide David Tolani
2/21/2010– 11/10/2016

David Tolani came into this world as a shining representation of the love of God. Though his time on this earth was abbreviated, his message of love will continue to live and grow through everyone who knew him.

Psalms 139: 13-14 reminds us, "For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well."

God designed David in the womb of his mother as a trail-blazer. He demonstrated what it meant to be the light of the world and the salt of the earth. Everyone who knew David admired him for his ability to attract others, his appreciation for beauty and his joy.

Though young, David was goal oriented, a true achiever. He loved the sport of basketball and would play with his best friend Isaac as often as he could. His favorite basketball team was the Cleveland Cavaliers. David was dedicated to basketball; his dream was to play in the NBA one day.

Basketball was his craft, but nothing overshadowed the love that David had for his family. Every day, David would express his love and gratitude for his mother, father, siblings, extended family members and friends through prayer. He was concise and thoughtful ending each prayer with, "I love you God".

David modeled love in a way we all can learn from. He embodied love in his actions and words toward others. He prayed for everyone. He spent quality time with the people he loved. He practiced his craft diligently, and visualized himself reaching his dreams. Most importantly, David loved God infinitely.
